

Check-out Leading a Group Discussion

Level of Competence Desired:	Simulated Session	Field Experience
1. Has demonstrated the ability to use a “hook” to introduce the small-group content.	_____	_____
2. Demonstrates mastery of the small group biblical content and enthusiasm for its ability to change lives.	_____	_____
3. Demonstrates the ability to use “open” questions to stimulate group discussion and the development of personal convictions.	_____	_____
4. Demonstrates the ability to draw all group members in on the discussion and to keep it from going off on tangents.	_____	_____
5. Demonstrates the ability to deal with wrong conclusions firmly, yet graciously.	_____	_____
6. Demonstrates the ability to summarize the conclusions of the small group discussion and make personal application.	_____	_____
7. Encourages the group members to write conclusions and personal applications in their study guides.	_____	_____
8. Demonstrates the ability to keep the group discussion focused on the Word of God.	_____	_____
9. Starts and ends the group on time.	_____	_____
10. Accomplishes the learning objectives of the session through the group discussion format.	_____	_____
11. Clearly states the time and place of the next meeting and gives clear assignments for the next lesson.	_____	_____

Special Instructions:

Simulate leading a small-group discussion in ideal circumstances (i.e., the group is cooperative and mature) with 3 or 4 members present.