

The Orlando Institute

Equipping Leaders to Disciple the Nations

Steve Clinton

DS 230

Leading Spiritual Movements

This class is the fourth in a series of four. In the Leadership Training certificate program it cannot be taken out of sequence.

I. Objectives: By the completion of this class the student will be able to

1. describe the purpose and process of reaching neighborhoods
2. teach the members of a group how to multiply the group
3. experience the relationship of evangelism, discipleship, small groups and reaching neighborhoods
4. understand strategies for reaching neighborhoods, planting churches and reaching cities.

II. Session - exploring steps of multiplication (class attendance - 30 pts.)

1. Responding to the Call to fulfill the Great Commission
2. Choose a target site/audience within the nation/MPTA to which God has called you
 - Spend time in prayer
 - Analyze the site for the readiest to respond to the gospel
 - Ask God to confirm your calling: spiritual, circumstantial, community
3. Choose a target audience
 - Who will be the first 100 to be reached (won to Christ)?
 - Evaluate the target audience (information; best means; responsiveness)
4. Start a prayer ministry
 - Regular times of prayer
 - Intercessors (regular, daily)
 - Prayer warriors (go with you, to pray for you)
5. Take the gospel to the people
 - Neighborhood Bible Studies
 - JESUS film showings
 - Mens and Womens groups
6. Penetrate the target audience with the gospel
 - Strategy follows natural groupings and divine opportunities
 - Reach groups relationally whenever possible
7. Concentrate follow-up and discipleship on those who respond
 - First follow-up in 24 hours
 - Train those who respond to discipleship and promote (based on fruitfulness)
 - Build a core of 50 committed disciples, in 8-10 small groups
8. Plan to reach other target audiences using natural bridges
 - Personal bridges from your disciples
 - Natural group bridges from your initial group

9. Within no more than one year begin sending disciples to other target areas
 - Tithe the workers (anyone in good standing called of God to move should feel sent)
 - Sending ceremony
10. Saturate the initial group/site
 - Pray for each one, share with each one
 - Concentrate follow-up and discipleship on those who respond
 - Train and promote (based on fruitfulness) those who respond to discipleship opportunities
11. Saturate the area : Reach all the groups within the area
 - Expose every one
 - Significant number of disciples in each audience
 - Some being sent from each audience
12. Consolidating a movement
 - Take them to church with you
 - Plant a new church
 - Keep the vision in front of them
 - Celebrate successes
13. Marshall resources for continual saturation of the nation
 - Repeated prayer and exposure to those who are not yet Christian
 - Outreach to all new people
14. Become a catalyst for reaching other nations
 - Maintain contact for those you have sent
 - Support locals from other nations reaching ethnic groups
15. Stabilize leadership and leadership training
 - Promote based on fruitfulness
 - Organized process of training; biblical, movement
 - Continual prayer for leaders
16. Stabilize the organization and funding
 - Personnel, placement, relationships are stable
 - Stable local and national outreaches
 - Budget raised ahead of time
 - Significant funding for other MPTAs and missions
17. Stay or go based on God's call

III. Textbook: read Swanson, Eric & Williams, Sam. (2010). To Transform a City. Grand Rapids: Zondervan. and report to your class group.

IV. Scripture Memory

Matt. 10:11; Luke 10:1, 8; Acts 19:10; Titus 1:5. These will be tested in class in weeks two, four, six and eight. (10 pts.)

V. Paper: Prepare a paper outlining your plans and steps to reach the target area you will work in beginning after the class ends, using the steps in II above. (20 pts.)

VI. Log: Keep a report/log of the activities you engage in this semester which have to do with multiplication and reaching cities: books, personal ministry, seminars, etc. Turn it in to the faculty to be reviewed during the last week of classes. (20 pts.)

VII. Bibliography

- Bakke, Ray & Sharpe, Jon. (2006). Street Signs. Birmingham: New Hope.
- Barna, George. (1996). Turning Vision into Action. Ventura, CA: Regal Books.
- Brafman, Ori & Beckstrom, Rod. (2006). The Starfish and the Spider: the Unstoppable Power of Leaderless Organizations. London: Penguin.
- Bright, Bill. (1999). Come Help Change the World. Atlanta: New Life Pub.
- Clinton, Stephen. (2004). 21st Century Population Factors and Leadership of Spiritual Movements, in press, Evangelical Missions Quarterly.
- Dennison, Jack. (1999). City Reaching. Pasadena: William Carey.
- George, Carl. (1997). Nine Keys to Successful Small Groups. Mansfield, PA: Kingdom Pub.
- Grenz, Stanley. (1996). Created for Community. Wheaton, IL: Victor Books.
- Haggard, Ted & Hayford, Jack. (1997). Loving Your City into the Kingdom. Ventura, CA: Regal Books.
- Jenkins, Philip. (2002). The Next Christendom: The Coming of Global Christianity. New York: Oxford.
- Keller, Tim. (2006). "A New Kind of Urban Christian," Christianity Today.
- Lewis, Robert. (2001). The Church of Irresistible Influence. Grand Rapids: Zondervan.
- Maxwell, John. (1995). Developing the Leaders Around You. Nashville: Nelson.
- McGavran, Donald, ed. (1965). Church Growth and Christian Mission. NY: Harper.
- Meeks, Wayne. (2003). The First Urban Christians. New Haven: Yale Press.
- Rusaw, Rick & Swanson, Eric. (2004). The Externally Focused Church. Loveland, CO.
- Swanson, Eric & Williams, Sam. (2010). To Transform a City. Grand Rapids: Zondervan.

VIII. Checkout: on the web site. (20 pts)

By the end of the semester you should have:

- led at least one group through follow-up
- led at least one group into discipleship teaching
- helped two of your disciples share the gospel 10 times each
- helped one of your disciples start and lead a follow-up group
- prayed with other people weekly for your target area
- held at least one outreach event which has the potential to reach everyone in the target area
- planned and completed follow-up for the event